

I-Search Quiz

Name _____

- _____ 1) The most important factor in picking your topic is:
- a) it will benefit and change the world
 - b) it will lead to scientific discovery
 - c) you will learn about something in literature
 - d) you are rewarded by investigating it
- _____ 2) The writing style for this paper is:
- a) informative
 - b) narrative in your voice
 - c) rhetorical
 - d) expository
- _____ 3) Which one of the four items listed below is NOT a part of the I-Search paper:
- a) Why I need to write this paper
 - b) What I know, assume or have heard about my topic
 - c) What empirical evidence I have to prove my hypothesis
 - d) What I discovered in the end
- _____ 4) You must have a minimum of _____ source(s):
- a) one
 - b) two
 - c) three
 - d) four
- _____ 5) When approaching a primary source you must:
- a) Call and introduce yourself
 - b) Have specific questions
 - c) Be polite and polished
 - d) Write a thank you note
 - e) All of the above

_____6) According to the style sheet, your name appears:

- a) top right of all pages
- b) bottom left of the first page
- c) no where, I have ESP
- d) on the title page and the top right of all pages

_____7) The source we will use to guide us in writing the works cited/bibliography is:

- a) the Internet
- b) Writer's Inc.
- c) the dictionary
- d) See Spot Run

_____8) The intelligent behavior that is crucial for this paper is:

- a) Persistence
- b) Flexibility in Thinking
- c) Metacognition
- d) Inquisitiveness
- e) All of the above

9) Define plagiarism:

BONUS:

Define one of the Intelligent Behaviors: